Peter Reggio is currently an International Race Officer (IRO) and has been involved in Race Management for the past 25 years. Peter served as Principal Race Officer (PRO) for the 32nd America's Cup in Valencia, Spain, and has been involved in managing all aspects of the on-the-water events since the 2004 season. Additionally, Peter's experience includes running international events for boats as diverse as Finn dinghies and maxi boats, including running all annual NOOD Regatta events for Sailing World Magazine since 1994. He recently has been appointed as one of the IROs for the Sailing Competition in Qingdao, China for the 2008 Beijing Olympics.

Immediately following the seminar, a cocktail party will be hosted by Mount Gay Rum. No one under the age of 21 will be served alcoholic beverages. The Sponsors and the Indiana Sailing Foundation remind all participants of the need to drink responsibly.
